INDIGO D. PULLEN

Visual Artist | Curator | Documentary Photographer | Creative Communications Professional

Steubenville, OH 43952 | (706) 801-2131 | indigodominiquepull@gmail.com

Website: indigodominique.com Instagram: @indigo.dominique.art DVIDS Portfolio

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Multidisciplinary visual artist, curator, and documentary photographer working across contemporary art, mixed media, and visual communications. Artistic practice explores cultural identity, ancestry, and abstraction, supported by experience in exhibition curation and published documentary photography.

EDUCATION

University of Pittsburgh | Pittsburgh, PA — Bachelor of Arts in Studio Arts, currently enrolled. Expected May 2027; GPA: 3.7.

Columbus State University | Columbus, GA — Bachelor of Fine Arts coursework prior to transfer; Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration in progress (currently paused); GPA 3.6 in both programs.

Ashford University | San Diego, CA — Undergraduate coursework in Journalism & Mass Communication; GPA 3.6.

SELECTED EXHIBITIONS & CURATORIAL PROJECTS

2024 — PLEXUS: Intricacy of Lines | Kentler International Drawing Space, Brooklyn, NY | February 10–March 24, 2024

Co-curator of an exhibition featuring selected works from the Kentler Flatfiles collection.

2024 — Curatorial Talk | Kentler International Drawing Space, Brooklyn, NY | 2024 Participated as a speaker in a public gallery program discussing PLEXUS: Intricacy of Lines and its curatorial development.

2024 — CSU Juried Student Art Exhibition | Schley Gallery, Columbus State University, Columbus, GA | April 2024
Selected exhibiting artist; work accepted through a juried selection process by Brian Piper.

SELECTED PHOTOGRAPHY PUBLICATIONS

2026 — Flight 93's 25th Anniversary | Defense Visual Information Distribution Service (DVIDS) | Shanksville, PA
Documentary photography of the Flight 93 National Memorial commemoration, credited to Sgt. Indigo Pullen. View published photograph.

Additional photography | DVIDS, U.S. Army Reserve — Published documentary photographs of military activities and public affairs events. View published photograph

PROFESSIONAL ART & CURATORIAL EXPERIENCE

Curatorial Intern — Illges Gallery | Columbus State University, Columbus, GA | Spring 2024
Supported gallery operations, exhibition research, and artwork selection through the Young Curators Program.

Public Affairs Mass Communication Specialist NCO (46S) | U.S. Army Reserve | February 2023–Present
Produce documentary photography, videography, graphic design, and public affairs communications. Photograph personnel, operations, and ceremonies for official distribution; documented overseas assignments in Qatar and Jordan.

SELECTED PRESS & MEDIA FEATURES

2026 — "Army sergeant pursuing two bachelor's degrees while serving in Operation Epic Fury"
Columbus State University News | July 2, 2026 | Feature profile about Indigo Pullen's military public affairs work, visual storytelling, creative goals, and pursuit of degrees in fine arts and business.

Read university feature

RESEARCH & ACADEMIC RECOGNITION

2024 — Fossil Records | Tower Day Undergraduate Research Conference, Columbus State University, Columbus, GA
Visual arts research abstract accepted by the conference planning committee for a proposed 20-minute presentation.

ARTISTIC & TECHNICAL SKILLS

Studio Art: Painting, drawing, sculpture, mixed media, installation, abstraction, figurative art.

Photography & Media: Documentary and digital photography, videography, photojournalism, visual storytelling.

Curatorial Practice: Exhibition research, artwork selection, exhibition development, gallery operations, collaboration.

Technology: Adobe Creative Cloud, graphic design, digital content creation, Microsoft Office.